

Proposal for Your 3rd Essay: Identify and Inform about a Problem

1. What is the problem you want to write about? Please explain/describe overall.
2. Do you feel this problem could be narrowed down or expanded more in order to better focus your work? If so, how?
3. What kinds of research have you found that will help identify and inform your readers about this problem? Some categories below.

Current State of the Problem:

Historical Info/Timeline:

People or Things that Contribute to the Problem:

4. Why did you choose this problem? Also describe briefly what your previous knowledge about or experience with this problem was before you started doing research.